© L.H. Du de Larsen

Taken from an original oil painting by the noted cowboy artist and poet, L. H. "Dude" Larsen.

He was born a cowboy and knows cows, cowponies and cowboys from A to Z.

ROUGH RANGES

Where the range is rough and the cattle wild
A cowboy's life is never mild,
For many a critter just like this steer
Has got to be roped and led out of here.
This steer got up before he was tied
And hit the rope with a mighty stride.
The rope it broke and this cowboy could see
That his only chance was up a tree.
The only one close was very small
But is was better than none at all.
So up he went to the highest branch
Which could barely protect the seat of his pants.

NO. 7 COPYRIGHT 1939 BY L. H. LARSEN
NO PART OF THIS PICTURE MAY BE REPRODUCED IN ANY FORM WITHOUT PERMISSION IN WRITING FROM THE ARTIST

PUB. BY L. H. LARSEN, KANAB, UTAH—MADE IN U.S.A.—(B.I.L.)

Well we are in arazona this am late to see an trip. Will write when get settle
John + C

10625
SEP 1 P.M. 1944 ARIZ.

UNITED STATES POSTAGE

Mr John Flemsaugh
Route 1
Baxter Spring
Kansas